SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Officers responded to the 300 block of Allen Wy for the reports of a burglary in progress. Dispatchers received a call of subjects climbing into a residence through a window. The residence was partially burned a few days prior and was supposed to be vacant. Officers arrived on scene and set up a perimeter. Once the home owner confirmed there was not supposed to be anyone inside officers made entry and found the husband hiding between a bed and a wall holding a sword. Officers were able to detain the subject without incident. The home owner advised her husband also lives in the residence and it was okay for him to be there. It will remain a mystery as to why he did not answer the door and tried hide to hide in his own residence. The subject was released from detention and officers extra patrolled throughout the night.
