SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today was a lot busier than the past few days. At one point we had several calls being reported as in-progress with multiple officers responding to one. This required a couple of the in-progress calls to pend a short period of time before an officer could respond. One incident was reported as a stabbing that had occurred in the 3900 block of N. Walnut Rd. Officers quickly arrived on scene to provide aid to the victim and to search for the suspect. Officers did an outstanding job by obtaining critical information that later assisted in locating the suspect and arresting him without incident. The subject was ultimately booked into jail. The victim sustained non-life-threatening injuries and was treated at a local area hospital for his injuries.
