It was a standard Friday night, with officers being busy from the onset. Officers responded to a possible weapons violation in which a citizen reported someone shooting at her home. When officers arrived, they were unable to locate any shell casings or damage to the residence. The caller stated while she was inside her home she heard the sounds of a gunshot, but did not see who the suspect was. She was told by her son, who was also inside the home, that it might be a certain person. The son left prior to TPD arrival and did not want to speak to the police.
