Sunday was busier than the prior day. Especially towards the end of the shift. During this shift, officers investigated a missing person in which the reporting party stated a 54-year-old male never showed up for work or his home. He has never done this before. As officers were completing the report, the male returned home. He gave no explanation as to where he was. The call of the day came in at the end of our shift. TPD received reports of a stabbing that occurred in the south east portion of town. When officers arrived, they located the victim, a female, with 3 stab wounds. It was also discovered that the incident occurred in the county pocket. The sheriff's department arrived and took over the investigation.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

The shift started out busy with officers assisting dayshift with the stabbing call which turned out to be in the S/O jurisdiction. The shift was steady the rest of the evening with all eight reports taken resulting in arrests. Officers responded to a laundry mat for a report of a male wearing a ski mask possibly in possession of a gun in a bag. He was contacted and detained. Officers immediately noticed he had a gun magazine in his pocket. The gun was located in his bag along with ammunition. The male was a felon and on probation out of Oakland for assault and weapons charges. He was booked in jail. A male was passed out behind the wheel of his car at a green light. The investigation revealed he was under the influence of marijuana while driving. He was arrested and booked after a blood draw was obtained at DMC.
