SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Very busy Sunday for dayshift. Early this morning, we responded to an apartment complex for a report of a female crying and a male in a vehicle with a gun. The involved parties were located and the investigation resulted in two firearms being recovered. Two adult males were booked in jail and one male juvenile was booked in juvenile hall for various weapons violations. Officers responded to a disturbance where an adult female was damaging a vehicle with a metal ratchet. She was located down the street, arrested and booked for felony vandalism. Officers also handled a vehicle vs pedestrian traffic collision on Geer Rd. Luckily, the pedestrian was not seriously injured. An officer spotted an adult male on Lander Ave who had felony warrants for his arrest. He fled from us yesterday and got away, but was caught today and booked for his warrants and fresh narcotics possession charges.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Officers responded to a residence regarding a male who was breaking items in the house and acting violently towards family members. During the incident he made threats to his elderly father who was in fear. The male was arrested and booked for elder abuse and vandalism. An officer attempted to pull over a motorcycle that got onto the freeway after running a red light. The driver fled and a pursuit was initiated. The pursuit was immediately cancelled but County Air 101 was in the sky and provided direction of travel and a description to CHP. CHP located the motorcycle and it stopped for them. We responded to the location and arrested the driver for evading and not having a M1 license after the driver admitted to everything. Additionally, a large car meet began to congregate at the Monte Vista Crossings and began to do burnouts and donuts in the parking lot. Officers made a traffic stop on one of the vehicles, and after doing so, a large crowd of about 40 people began to surround the officers at the traffic stop and cause a disturbance. Every available TPD officer, along with Cal State, SO deputies, and CHP officers responded to assist. The heavy police presence caused the majority of vehicles to leave the city and ended the issue.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

It was a busy night, for a Sunday. Officers responded to a car meet/ side show right after briefing. Officers made several arrests for reckless driving, and towed numerous cars. Officers also responded to a 911 call in which a female stated she was being slapped by her boyfriend. When officers arrived, the female who called was in the front yard. When she saw the police, she quickly ran inside the home. While officers were trying to contact her at the front door, the boyfriend attempted to escape by jumping the back fence. An officer was waiting for him in the alley and he was taken into custody. He had an outstanding warrant for making terrorist threats. Unfortunately, when the female saw that her boyfriend was being arrested, she started to get extremely belligerent towards the officer. It turned out that she was also restrained from the boyfriend. She was also subsequently arrested for violating the protective order.
