SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

This was our last day of our work week, and it turned out to be a busy one. When officers came in, there were multiple calls for service waiting to be handled, plus the Christmas parade was ongoing. Officers had a short briefing and then we all went out to assist in handling calls. Officers made several arrests for public intoxication, and well as a DWI, and a weapon violation arrest. As they were responding to a traffic collision, one of the involved parties was seen with a handgun in his waistband. The subject attempted to throw it away when officers approached him. The handgun was secured and the subject was arrest for carrying a concealed weapon. It was also bitterly cold tonight.
