NUMBER OF REPORTS: 5

CATEGORIES

1 Burglary	1 Non-Injury Accident	1 Found Property
1 Public Intoxication	1 Narcotics Arrest

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

The shift began with a burglary investigation. The victim was sleeping and heard a banging noise, not realizing it was someone breaking in her backdoor. The suspect fled after realizing there was someone inside, but not before stealing the victims cell phone. Officers detained a male a block away who was conveniently on probation for vehicle theft and burglary. He was searched per his probation terms and the victim's phone was located in his possession. He admitted to the burglary, the victim got her phone back and he was booked in jail. This afternoon, an officer responded to a report of homeless people trespassing. During the encounter, one female was unable to care for herself due to her level of intoxication and drug use. She was booked for public intoxication. Other than that, miscellaneous calls for service in the cold cloud hovering over the city.

SHIFT: SWING SHIFT

Sgt. Cervantez

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 4

CATEGORIES

1 Missing Person/ Walkaway	1 TMC Violation	1 Assault & Battery
1 Narcotics

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Officers responded to several in-progress calls for service, however, most of the calls did not require a written report. An officer investigated an assault & battery involving a 15-year-old student who was in an altercation with another student on the bus ride home from school. The victim sustained minor injuries from the incident and the victim's parent wanted the boy arrested. The officer will be working with the SRO to identify who the other student is to arrest and cite him for battery. Officers also responded to a trespass call and contacted an intoxicated male who was on PRCS. After searching the male they located some meth and a smoking pipe in his pocket. He was arrested and booked for the possession of drugs due his level of drunkenness.

SHIFT: GRAVEYARD SHIFT

Sgt. Neves

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 1

CATEGORIES

1 Traffic Offense

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Overall it a quiet night. The remaining officers who weren't able to train at the range yesterday, completed it tonight. Officers spent most of their shift patrolling areas of concern and making traffic enforcement stops. One person was arrested tonight for driving on a suspended license. He was cited and released from custody.
