SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Our shift started out very busy. Officers cleared briefing early to assist with two significant calls that occurred at the same time. Ceres Police Department requested our drone Officers for a subject who had stabbed another subject and was believed to be in a residence. Two of our drone Officers responded to assist. The subject was located and taken into custody allowing our Officers to return back to our city. After 0300 hours calls for service slowed allowing Officers to get caught up on reports.
