SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

An officer saw a male riding a bike and knew he had warrants. The male was also a known probationer. He was stopped and arrested for the warrants. Officers also contacted two males who were in violation of TMCs. One of the males had four outstanding warrants and was arrested. Officers also responded to a call involving a 6-year-old walking on the roof of a home with no clothes on. The mother had been asleep and claimed to not know the child had escaped the home. The report will be forwarded to CPS and the DA for review.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

One public intoxication and two warrant arrests were the highlights of the night, which made for a peaceful Sunday evening. Officers responded to a shirtless male in a dumpster enclosure at a liquor store talking to himself. He had drug paraphernalia near him and was making nonsensical statements consistent with being under the influence of drugs. He was arrested and booked for public intoxication. Two females were stopped during routine patrols and had warrants for their arrest. One went to jail and the other was cited.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Officers located a stolen vehicle being driven on the roadway and initiated a high-risk stop. After the vehicle yielded the male driver was detained and eventually arrested for possession of a stolen vehicle. He was booked into jail. Officers also responded to a trespass in-progress. An intoxicated male had opened a front yard gate and entered into the victim's property. The victim did not know who the male was and wanted him to leave. Officers determined he was unable to care for himself based on his level of intoxication and he was taken to jail.
