1 Sex Offense

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today was the last day of the work week. Officers were call to call throughout the shift and handled 7 investigative reports. An Officer made a traffic stop for a vehicle code violation where the male in the vehicle was restrained from the female. The male was arrested and booked for violating a court order. During a separate investigation, a male sold a $16,000 watch to an individual he met online. As the victim was counting the money, he realized it was fraudulent which caused the suspect to flee. The suspect was located a short time later and arrested and booked into jail for forgery and theft related offenses.

SHIFT: GRAVEYARD SHIFT

Sgt. Lewis

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 3

CATEGORIES

1 Larceny

1 Aggravated Assault

1 Public Intoxication

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Good shift. Officers responded to a subject who was possibly armed with a firearm at an apartment complex in the early morning hours while playing loud music from his vehicle. Officers contacted him and he was too intoxicated to care for himself in public. No firearms were located. He was arrested and booked into jail for public intoxication and a misdemeanor warrant.
