SHIFT: DAY SHIFT

Sgt. Neves

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 8

CATEGORIES

3 Narcotics

2 Resisting Arrest

2 Warrant Arrest

1 Damaged Property

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

It was a moderately busy shift for officers today. While the calls for service were light, officers contacted several subjects who had confirmed warrants and arrested them, taking them to jail. The also contacted several subjects who were trespassing in vacant properties without permission. These subjects were also arrested and booked into jail. Later in the day, officers responded to a local shelter for a female subject who was throwing cups of water at staff and other occupants. When contacted, she stated that her name was "Ariana Grande" (obviously not the real one). She was ultimately arrested for giving false info to a police officer.

SHIFT: SWING SHIFT

Sgt. Crawford

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 4

CATEGORIES

1 Elder Abuse

2 Warrant Arrest

1 Narcotics Arrest

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

It was a nice peaceful Sunday evening. An officer spent a few hours investigating an elder abuse case. The officer coordinated a safe place for the victim to stay, and obtained an Emergency Protective Order. The case is being forwarded to the District Attorney. SCU officers made two enforcement stops which resulted in a warrant arrest of a male and narcotics arrest of a female. An officer contacted a male sleeping blocking a sidewalk on Lander. The male had a felony warrant and misdemeanor warrant out of Fresno. He was arrested and booked. There was the weekly Sunday night car meet at Monte Vista Crossings. This time in the BevMo parking lot. They were peaceful and law abiding for the most part. A few stops and citations were issued.

SHIFT: GRAVEYARD SHIFT FTO Roton

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 2

CATEGORIES

1 Warrant Arrest

1 Narcotics

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Graveyard officers made numerous extra patrols, subject contacts and traffic stops throughout the night. The arrest of a wanted animal abuser was made, in addition to another subject caught smoking fentanyl in public. All in all, the shift was productive despite the gloomy/cold weather.
