SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

It was an uneventful night. There were a few traffic stops made and calls that did not require a written report. At the start of the shift one officer was occupied with a follow-up investigation involving a juvenile victim from the night prior. The victim was in custody at juvenile hall, but needed to be taken to the hospital to complete a sexual assault exam. This took one of the graveyard officers out of the city for half the shift. Officers also had to deal with a troubled young male who was making threats to kill himself. He was upset due to an argument he had with someone over video games. He was placed on a mental health hold for an evaluation and taken to the hospital.
