We had another busy day for the dayshift officers. Most of the officers were kept busy throughout the day with calls for service. In addition to the regular scheduled officers working, we had several officers dealing with homeless and quality of life issues. Throughout the day, several arrests were made, with most being for outstanding warrants. Officers responded to a shoplifting at a local store. The responding officers located the group of juveniles that were involved. They were able to recover the stolen property and the juveniles were arrested. Officers also responded to an argument between a grandchild and his grandfather. During the altercation, the grandchild brandished a knife. He left prior to TPD arriving on scene. However, he was quickly located and mental health hold was placed on him.

The shift started out with an injury accident again. There were four vehicles involved due to a rear end collision and minor injuries only. We picked up a prisoner from a Merced County who had a TPD Ramey warrant. The jail would not accept him due to medical reasons so he had to be taken to DMC for medical clearance. An officer was at DMC all evening with the prisoner. An officer contacted a male for illegal camping and determined he had a warrant. He was booked for the warrant. Officers responded to a domestic violence at an apartment between a husband and wife. The investigation resulted in the husband being arrested for felony domestic violence and booked.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

It was a very slow night with not many people out. Two arrests were made. The first was a violation of restraining order between a father and his adult son. The father had contacted his son several times and went to his residence, which is against the order. He was arrested and booked in jail. An officer also made a traffic stop on a suspected DUI driver. The driver had a suspended license for DUI, but was not under the influence this time. The driver was arrested for the suspended license and released with a citation.
