SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today was scorching hot and busy. Early this morning, a drunk female was located in a gutter next to a park. Along with being drunk, she had a felony warrant for her arrest so she went to jail. Officers investigated two domestic violence cases. One resulted in a female going to jail for punching her boyfriend and the other resulted in a male going to jail for pushing his girlfriend and preventing her from calling police. Officers also investigated a domestic dispute where a husband was harassing his wife in violation of a restraining order. He was arrested. Lastly, this afternoon, officers met with CPS at a home to check on the condition of the home and kids. The home was found to be a hoarding house, in disgusting condition. CPS handled a safety plan for the kids and both parents were arrested for child neglect.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

It was a very busy swingshift for this Friday night. Officers started responding to calls right after briefing. During this shift, my officers handled various different call types, with several arrest being made for domestic violence, and warrants. Officers also investigated an elder abuse at a care facility, and investigated a juvenile runaway. The runaway fled from the guardians in Modesto, however they came to Turlock to report the incident.

SHIFT: GRAVEYARD SHIFT
Acting Sgt Roton

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 6

CATEGORIES

2 Sex Offense

1 Juvenile Runaway

2 Public Intoxication

1 Accident-Injury

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

The unusually hot weather kept officers busy throughout the shift. Officers began their shifts with in-service rifle training at the range. Following the training, Officers responded to various calls and made numerous proactive contacts. A man wanted for auto theft was located and arrested, as were two men found heavily intoxicated in public.
