Officers responded to a male passed out on the grass in front of an apartment. He was transported to the hospital by AMR for medical treatment. We assisted Oakdale PD in recovering a company truck that an employee was refusing to return. In keeping with the latest theme, swingshift was very busy on this Saturday night. Detectives were continuing their work of apprehending several child predators. Aside from that, officers responded and investigated several different types of calls. Of note was a weapon offense that we responded to at a local restaurant. A patron was exiting and was verbally accosted by a homeless subject. According to the victim, the homeless subject stated that the victim "was going to die tonight". He started to walk towards the victim and the victim pulled out a .40 large caliber rubber ball pistol and pointed it at the subject until he fled. The subject was located and arrested.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Graveyard Officers responded to numerous calls for service and conducted extra patrols and proactive stops throughout the city. One subject/patient was contacted as he caused a disturbance outside Emanuel Medical Center. Staff advised they had tested the man's blood already and his alcohol content was 4 times the legal limit, yet somehow, there he stood. He was well enough to be booked into jail for public intoxication. Officers also arrested one subject for outstanding arrest warrants and another who was a sex registrant in possession of narcotics. All in all, the night shift was productive and safe.
