SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Dayshift was steady all day with calls for service. However, there was only one call of interest. Officers responded to a report of a stabbing at a homeless shelter. It was reported that a mother had stabbed her teenage son with a pencil. After officers investigated the incident, it was determined the mother was trying to take the pencil from her son, who was poking his siblings with it. In the process, the pencil punctured the juvenile's hand. He was transported to the hospital to remove the pencil from his hand. On a side note, the mother had a warrant for her arrest, so she was arrested.

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Our Traffic Safety Unit did a briefing training during our briefing on a new program Officers will be using on patrol for traffic collisions. Officers had to break early from briefing due to in progress calls. Officers were very busy during our shift with calls. Officers responded to a traffic collision where the driver of the vehicle was intoxicated. She was booked into Jail for

DUI. Officers responded to a disturbance where Officers determined one of the parties to be in violation of a court order. The subject was placed under arrest and booked into Jail. Officers did a great job keeping up with the call volume.
