SHIFT: DAY SHIFT

Sgt Crawford

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 6

CATEGORIES

1 Fraud	1 Assault & Battery	1 Warrant Arrest
1 Found Property	1 Domestic Dispute

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

The shift was quiet this morning and picked up around 11am. Officers responded to a domestic dispute between a boyfriend/girlfriend at an apartment. It was determined there was no evidence of a crime committed, but the incident was documented. This afternoon, we responded to a call of a frantic mother who reported her daughter was kidnapped. The suspect was on the phone with the mother and the apparent daughter screaming in the background. The suspect told the mother her daughter was in a traffic collision with him and he was threatening to harm her. Several officers responded and it was quickly determined to be a scam call after contact was made with her actual daughter to confirm she was ok. It appears the caller was overseas. Lastly, we responded to an assault/battery where a homeowner questioned where a male got the two bikes he was pushing. The male got defensive and assaulted the homeowner. He was detained by the homeowner until we police arrived, and then arrested for assault/battery. He also happened to have a warrant for his arrest out of Manteca. He was booked for both.

SHIFT: SWING SHIFT

Sgt. Neves

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 6

CATEGORIES

1 Damaged Property	1 Stalking	1 Lost Property
1 Public Intoxication	1 Warrant Arrest	1 Traffic Offense

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

This was another average night for my officers. The calls for service were not overly complex, and in between responding to calls, officers were able to continue to make traffic enforcement stops and perform extra patrols. The most intricate call of the night dealt with a stalking. An ex-husband became overly jealous of his ex's new girlfriend. This had escalated to the point of him creeping into her backyard and watching the front of her home to see who she would come home with. He also made threats to her that she and her new partner would "disappear". The investigation is still ongoing, and the suspect is currently wanted for stalking.

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 6

CATEGORIES

2 Resisting Arrest
1 Narcotics

2 Warrant Arrest

1 Public Intoxication

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Tonight, was busy, with much of the activity generated through self-initiated enforcement stops. A total of five subjects were arrested during the shift. During a traffic enforcement stop, an officer contacted a female who attempted to avoid arrest by providing her sister's name instead of her own. The officer ultimately determined her true identity and discovered she had an outstanding warrant. She was arrested and booked on the warrant, as well as for providing false identification to a peace officer.
